Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac (2010) - IMDb

A different plot for a YA novel that opens with the main character, Naomi, in the back of an ambulance with a boy that claims he's her boyfriend. Of course, my mind filled with a repertoire of suspense thrillers immediately went to "OMG, he tried to kill her", but no, Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac is not that kind of book.

Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac by Gabrielle Zevin

This book is ultimately a love story, but one that involves a girl who, after taking a header down a set of stairs, wakes up in hospital having lost the last few years of her memory. At first this love story involves James Larkin, a new student who comes to the rescue of Naomi after Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac. I looked across the cafeteria. Gabe caught my eye. What happened next is somewhat blurry to me. He would later claim that he hadn't, but I thought he sneered at me, then whispered something to the girl sitting to the left of him—she was a sophomore, maybe even a freshman, so I didn't know who she was—and they both laughed, and in response, I lifted my ...

Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac "Please, say it." "Sasha lived eighteen years on this earth, and all that time didn't add up to a damn thing. What that time is to me now, is a hole. "I wish he'd never been born or that I'd never been born. I can't talk about this." He kissed me then and I suppose I was glad for the distraction. By the time we had gotten on the Metro North ...
